light plant at the mills of the American Lumber company. The department made a run, but found that it was simply a false alarm. The department was away from the station exactly half an hour and the run was a long and tiresome one for the horses. The police are now looking for the man who turned in the alarm and if he is found he will be fined for his fun. There is too much of this false alarm business and the police intend to put a stop to it.
